NATIONAL law firm Maurice Blackburn has established an office in Wangaratta.

Located at 29 Ely Street, the office will be headed up by Danny Frigerio, who is an accredited personal injury specialist.

Mr Frigerio grew up in regional Victoria and said he was keen to build the firm's presence in the Wangaratta region.

"We'll offer a broad suite of legal services including Workcover and TAC as well as legal representation for people who have suffered medical and common law negligence," Mr Frigerio said.
