14. By 4:00pm on 12 March 2027, the parties file and serve any lay witness statements upon which they intend to rely on at trial.
15. All lay witness statements must comply with the following requirements:
 - (a) they must be prepared on the basis that certain evidence will be given viva voce, including all evidence:
 - i. of significant conversations to which the witness was a party;
 - ii. concerning the witness' knowledge or state of mind;
 - iii. concerning the witness' explanation for, and understanding of, decisions made and actions taken or not taken (whether by the witness or others);
 - (b) where viva voce evidence is to be given, those parts of the witness statements should be prepared in the form of witness outlines and must satisfy the following requirements:
 - i. be set out in numbered paragraphs;
 - ii. be a brief outline of the evidence the witness will give; and
 - iii. clearly identify the topics in respect of which evidence will be given and the substance of that evidence, including the substance of each important conversation.
 - (c) they must not include narrative or background where the relevant facts can be established by documents;
 - (d) the evidence must not repeat the content of documents to which the witness refers, except to the extent necessary to enable the evidence to be read sensibly;
 - (e) any statement or outline should include a list of any documents intended to be tendered through that witness and any documents the content of which will be the subject of the witness' evidence. The documents should be referred to chronologically in the body of the witness outline or, if not possible, listed in chronological order in a schedule to the witness outline.
16. No person may use any part of the contents of a witness outline for the purposes of cross-examination of the person providing the witness outline or any other person without leave of the trial judge.
