1. OVERVIEW AND SUMMARY

- A. On 2 May 2025, the parties to the Supreme Court of Victoria (the Court) Proceeding S ECI 2020 02946 (the Proceeding) exchanged a deed of settlement (the Deed).
- B. The Deed sets out the terms of a proposed settlement of the Proceeding subject to Court approval. The Deed provides that the Defendants will pay a total of $130 million (inclusive of all costs) (the Settlement Sum) to resolve the Proceeding.
- C. On 27 August 2025, the Court approved the settlement of the Proceeding on the terms set out in the Deed and this Settlement Distribution Scheme (the Scheme).
- D. The Scheme establishes a procedure for distributing the Settlement Sum and is operative from the date of the Approval Orders (as defined in paragraph 2.1 below).
- E. The Scheme has the following key stages:

Stage	Clause	Procedure
Eligibility Assessment	Clause 5	The Scheme Administrator may request Registered Group Members who have not had their Registration Data matched through the Matching Process to provide additional information to the Scheme Administrator to enable it to determine whether they are Eligible Group Members. The Scheme Administrator will notify each Registered Group Member whether they are an Eligible Group Member. Registered Group Members who do not provide additional information to the Scheme Administrator when requested to do so will become Non-Responsive Group Members and will not be eligible to participate in the Scheme.
Calculation of Estimated Distribution Amounts	Clause 7	Eligible Group Members will have their Assessed Losses determined by the Scheme Administrator according to clause 7.1. Based on the Assessed Losses, the Scheme Administrator will determine the Estimated Distribution Amount for each Eligible Group Member. The Scheme Administrator will notify each Eligible Group Member of their Estimated Distribution Amount.

Collection of Bank Account Details	Clause 8	Eligible Group Members whose Estimated Distribution Amount is more than the Minimum Distribution Amount will be required to provide their bank details to the Scheme Administrator if they wish to receive payment of their Distribution Amount. Eligible Group Members that do not provide their bank details by the required time will become Non-Responsive Group Members and have their payment forfeited and redistributed to all other Eligible Group Members.
Calculation of Distribution Amounts	Clause 9	The Scheme Administrator will calculate each Eligible Group Member's Distribution Amount based on the quantum of the Distribution Sum. The calculations will be final and binding.
Payment of Distribution Amounts	Clause 10	The Scheme Administrator will pay each Eligible Group Member's Distribution Amount into their nominated bank account. The Scheme Administrator will provide Remittance Notices to those that receive a payment.
Residual Settlement Sum	Clause 11	After all Distribution Amounts are paid, the Scheme Administrator will calculate the quantum of the Residual Settlement Sum and determine how that sum is to be distributed.
Conclusion of Scheme	Clause 12	Once all payments are made, the Scheme Administrator will attend to finalisation of the Scheme.

- 5.4. The Scheme Administrator will use any additional information provided by a Registered Group Member in response to a request under clause 5.2 to try to match that information to information in the List of Borrowers.

- 5.5. If information provided by a Registered Group Member in response to a request by the Scheme Administrator pursuant to clause 5.2 is, in the judgment of the Scheme Administrator, insufficient to enable the Scheme Administrator to determine whether that person meets the Eligibility Criteria, that person will forfeit any right to participate in the Scheme.
- 5.6. Registered Group Members whose additional information, provided in response to a request under clause 5.2, can be matched by the Scheme Administrator to information in the List of Borrowers will meet the Eligibility Criteria in clause 5.1(b).

6. GROUP MEMBER DATA

- 6.1. Subject to any exercise of discretion by the Scheme Administrator pursuant to clause 6.3, the Group Member Data will be treated as final and binding in calculating the Assessed Losses of Eligible Group Members.
- 6.2. The Scheme Administrator is not required to make any inquiry of an Eligible Group Member as to whether they fulfil the requirements of paragraph 1 of the ASOC.
- 6.3. The Scheme Administrator may, in exceptional circumstances and in its absolute discretion having regard to the principles set out in clause 3.2(b), make corrections or amendments to the Group Member Data or the calculation of the Assessed Losses for an Eligible Group Member based on information provided to it by the Eligible Group Member if the Scheme Administrator considers it fair and appropriate to do so; but it is not obliged to do so.

7. ASSESSED LOSSES AND ESTIMATED DISTRIBUTION AMOUNT

Calculation of Assessed Losses

- 7.1. Eligible Group Members will have their Assessed Losses calculated using the Loss Assessment Formula.
- 7.2. If an Eligible Group Member entered their car loan contract, the subject of their claim, jointly with one or more other Eligible Group Members, the Scheme Administrator will apportion the Assessed Losses associated with that contract in equal proportions between any Eligible Group Members who entered that contract.

Calculation of Estimated Distribution Amounts

- 7.3. Following the calculation of Assessed Losses, the Scheme Administrator will estimate the portion of the Settlement Sum that will be available for distribution to Eligible Group Members, taking into account the deductions in clause 9.1 and the quantum of any other Administration Costs which the Scheme Administrator estimates will be reasonably incurred and for which Court approval will be sought.
- 7.4. This estimated portion of the Settlement Sum calculated in accordance with clause 7.3 is the Estimated Distribution Sum.
- 7.5. The Scheme Administrator will calculate the distribution of the Estimated Distribution Sum among the Eligible Group Members as follows:
 - (a) in the proportion which the Assessed Losses of each Eligible Group Member bear to the aggregate of the Assessed Losses for all Eligible Group Members;
 - (b) where the proportional assessment in clause 7.5(a) is less than the Minimum Distribution Amount, nothing will be allocated to the Eligible Group Member, and the amount will be included in the Estimated Distribution Sum for allocation to other Eligible Group Members; and
 - (c) the allocation to an individual Eligible Group Member pursuant to clause 7.5(a) is the Estimated Distribution Amount for that Eligible Group Member.

Notice of Estimated Distribution

- 7.6. The Scheme Administrator will send to each Eligible Group Member a Notice of Estimated Distribution which must include, but is not limited to:

- (a) whether the Eligible Group Member entered into the relevant car loan contract before 15 July 2014;
- (b) the car loan contract number for the car loan contract the subject of the Eligible Group Member's claim;

- (d) the Eligible Group Member's Estimated Distribution Amount.

8. PROVISION OF BANK ACCOUNT INFORMATION

- 8.1. Eligible Group Members whose Estimated Distribution Amounts exceed the Minimum Distribution Amount must, by the deadline in the Notice of Estimated Distribution, provide to the Scheme Administrator sufficient bank account details to enable the Scheme Administrator to process payments of Distribution Amounts.
- 8.2. Eligible Group Members will nominate a single Australian bank account to process their Distribution Amount. Upon request from an Eligible Group Member, if the Scheme Administrator, in its absolute discretion and having regard to the principles in clause 3.2(b), considers that there will be no detrimental impact on effecting a timely distribution to Eligible Group Members, the Scheme Administrator may agree to make payments to more than one nominated bank account or an overseas bank account. In these circumstances, the Scheme Administrator reserves the right to deduct the costs outlined in Schedule A from the Eligible Group Member's Distribution Amount. If the deduction of these costs reduces the Distribution Amount to below the Minimum Distribution Amount, the Distribution Amount will be forfeited, and the forfeited Distribution Amount will form part of the Residual Settlement Sum to be distributed in accordance with clause 11.
- 8.3. If an Eligible Group Member does not by the deadline in the Notice of Estimated Distribution provide sufficient bank details, then:
 - (a) the Scheme Administrator may, in its absolute discretion, make further attempts to contact the Eligible Group Member to obtain their nominated bank account details or information from the Eligible Group Member regarding the means of processing their payment, the acceptance of which will be subject to the exercise of the Scheme Administrator's discretion in clause 10.3; and, if it does so, may deduct from the Settlement Sum as additional Administration Costs any additional costs incurred in making such further attempts; and

- (b) unless clause 8.3(a) applies, the Eligible Group Member's Estimated Distribution Amount will be forfeited, and the Eligible Group Member will have no claim against the Scheme Administrator or the Settlement Sum; and all forfeited Estimated Distribution Amounts will be included in the calculation of the Distribution Sum in accordance with clause 9.2.

9. CALCULATION OF DISTRIBUTION AMOUNTS

Deductions from the Settlement Sum

9.1. As soon as practicable after the Appeal Date, the Scheme Administrator will pay the following amounts from the Settlement Sum, as approved by the Court:

- (a) an amount to the Plaintiffs for their time and effort spent fulfilling the roles of plaintiffs;
- (b) an amount to Maurice Blackburn for the Plaintiffs' legal costs, being the amount payable pursuant to the Group Costs Order; and
- (c) Administration Costs to the extent they have been incurred and approved by the Court.

Calculation of the Distribution Sum

9.2. Following the deductions described in clause 9.1, the Scheme Administrator will:

- (a) pay any further Court approved Administration Costs to the Scheme Administrator as they are incurred from the Settlement Sum; and
- (b) calculate and set aside from the Settlement Sum any:
 - i. remaining Court approved Administration Costs yet to be paid;
 - ii. other Administration Costs which the Scheme Administrator estimates will be reasonably incurred and for which Court approval will be sought; and
 - iii. further Court approved amounts to be deducted from the Settlement Sum by the Court.

9.3. The remaining Settlement Sum will be the Distribution Sum.

Calculation of Distribution Amounts

- 9.4. As soon as reasonably practicable after the expiration of the deadline for the provision of bank details by Eligible Group Members, the Scheme Administrator will calculate the Distribution Amount for each Eligible Group Member whose Estimated Distribution Amount exceeded the Minimum Distribution Amount.
- 9.5. The Scheme Administrator will calculate the distribution of the Distribution Sum on a pro-rata basis to each Eligible Group Member, whose Estimated Distribution Amount exceeded the Minimum Distribution Amount, in the proportion which their Assessed Losses bear to the aggregate Assessed Losses for all Eligible Group Members, whose Estimated Distribution Amounts exceeded the Minimum Distribution Amount, being the Distribution Amount for each Eligible Group Member.
- 9.6. If an Eligible Group Member's Distribution Amount is less than the Minimum Distribution Amount, nothing will be distributed to the Eligible Group Member and the amount will be included in the Distribution Sum for distribution to other Eligible Group Members whose Distribution Amounts are more than the Minimum Distribution Amount.

Binding calculations

- 9.7. Subject to the discretion in clause 6.3, the calculation of Assessed Losses, Estimated Distribution Amounts and Distribution Amounts by the Scheme Administrator are final and binding on Eligible Group Members, and Eligible Group Members are not entitled to seek a review of the decision or appeal to the Court or any other court or tribunal in relation to any asserted error of jurisdiction, fact or law arising from the Scheme Administrator's decision.

10. PAYMENTS TO ELIGIBLE GROUP MEMBERS

- 10.1. Subject to clause 10.3 the Scheme Administrator will as soon as practical after the Distribution Date:
- (a) pay the Distribution Amounts to Eligible Group Members by electronic funds transfer in accordance with the Eligible Group Members' nominated bank account details provided in accordance with clause 8.2; and
 - (b) send to each Eligible Group Member being paid a Distribution Amount a Remittance Notice.

10.2. The Scheme Administrator will commence processing payments on the Distribution Date. Payments will be processed in tranches over a period to be determined by the Scheme Administrator.

10.3. The Scheme Administrator may process the payment of Distribution Amounts to Eligible Group Members by alternative means if the Scheme Administrator, in its absolute discretion having regard to the principles in clause 3.2(b), considers that:

- (a) an Eligible Group Member has demonstrated to the Scheme Administrator's satisfaction that payment by electronic funds transfer is impracticable for that Eligible Group Member; or
- (b) another method would be more conducive to affecting a timely payment to any Eligible Group Member or group of Eligible Group Members.

10.4. If the Scheme Administrator is unable to attempt payment of a Distribution Amount to an Eligible Group Member, or a payment to an Eligible Group Member is rejected, due to:

- (a) incorrect bank account details provided by or on behalf of the Eligible Group Member; or
- (b) any other action or inaction by the Eligible Group Member,

the Scheme Administrator will not make further inquiries with those Eligible Group Members to obtain additional bank account details or reattempt the payment of the Distribution Amount unless the Scheme Administrator, in its absolute discretion, and considering the principles in clause 3.2(b), determines it is reasonable to do so.

10.5. If the Scheme Administrator exercises its discretion under clauses 3.2(b), 10.3 or 10.4 above, the Scheme Administrator may deduct the costs outlined in Schedule A from the Eligible Group Member's Distribution Amount. If the deduction of these costs reduces the Distribution Amount to below the Minimum Distribution Amount, the Distribution Amount will be forfeited, and the forfeited Distribution Amount will form part of the Residual Settlement Sum to be distributed in accordance with clause 11.

10.6. If, after 60 days from the Distribution Date, the Scheme Administrator is unable to transfer payments of Distribution Amounts to Eligible Group Members or any payment to an Eligible Group Member is rejected due to the reasons outlined in clause 10.4(a) or (b):

- (a) the Eligible Group Member's Distribution Amount will be forfeited, and the Eligible Group Member will have no claim against the Scheme Administrator or the Settlement Sum; and
- (b) the forfeited Distribution Amount(s) will form part of the Residual Settlement Sum to be distributed in accordance with clause 11.

11. CALCULATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF RESIDUAL SETTLEMENT SUM

- 11.1. As soon as practicable after completing the payment of Distribution Amounts to Eligible Group Members, the Scheme Administrator will calculate and set aside from the remaining funds in the Settlement Distribution Account any further amounts to be calculated in accordance with clause 9.2(b).
- 11.2. After setting aside the amounts described in clause 11.1, the remaining funds in the Settlement Distribution Account will be the Residual Settlement Sum.
- 11.3. The Scheme Administrator will determine, having regard to the principles in clause 3.2(b), whether the Residual Settlement Sum will be distributed to Eligible Group Members.
- 11.4. If the Scheme Administrator determines that it is uneconomical for the Residual Settlement Sum to be distributed to Eligible Group Members, the Residual Settlement Sum will be paid to a suitable charitable or not-for-profit organisation.
- 11.5. If the Scheme Administrator determines that it is economical for the Residual Settlement Sum to be distributed to Eligible Group Members, the Scheme Administrator may calculate the distribution of the Residual Settlement Sum on a pro-rata basis to Eligible Group Members who were successfully paid a Distribution Amount in the proportion which their Assessed Losses bear to the aggregate Assessed Losses for all Eligible Group Members who were successfully paid a Distribution Amount, or such other amount as the Scheme Administrator determines in its discretion, being the Residual Distribution Amount for each of those Eligible Group Members.
- 11.6. If an Eligible Group Member's Residual Distribution Amount is less than the Minimum Distribution Amount, no Residual Distribution Amount will be distributed to the Eligible Group Member and the amount will be included in the Residual Settlement Sum for distribution to other Eligible Group Members whose Residual Distribution Amounts are more than the Minimum Distribution Amount.

11.7. The Scheme Administrator will process the payments of the Residual Distribution Amounts in accordance with clause 10. Any payments that are rejected, unsuccessful or otherwise returned to the Settlement Distribution Account will be paid to a suitable charitable or not-for-profit organisation.

Binding calculations

11.8. Subject to the discretion in clause 6.3, the calculation of Residual Distribution Amounts by the Scheme Administrator is final and binding on Eligible Group Members, and Eligible Group Members are not entitled to seek a review of the decision or appeal to the Court or any other court or tribunal in relation to any asserted error of jurisdiction, fact or law arising from the Scheme Administrator's decision.

12. COMPLETION OF SETTLEMENT DISTRIBUTION

12.1. The payment of all Distribution Amounts and Residual Distribution Amounts in accordance with this Scheme will satisfy all rights, claims or entitlements of all Group Members in or arising out of the Proceeding.

13. TAXATION

13.1. Eligible Group Members are responsible for obtaining their own taxation advice.

13.2. The Scheme Administrator is not responsible for, and will not be required to, provide or obtain any taxation advice or rulings in relation to any tax potentially payable by Eligible Group Members in relation to payment of Distribution Amounts and/or Residual Distribution Amounts.

14. CLAIMS MADE BY OTHER PERSONS AND/OR THIRD PARTIES

Application of this clause

14.3. The Scheme Administrator reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to request evidence of any authority referred to in clause 14.2.

14.4. The Scheme Administrator will implement processes for the payment of Distribution Amounts and Residual Distribution Amounts to Eligible Group Members' authorised representatives, having regard to the principles in clause 3.2(b) and the quantum of the payment(s) to those Eligible Group Members.

15.4. For the avoidance of doubt, a Registered Group Member and/or Eligible Group Member will not be entitled to recover any amount they might have received pursuant to the Scheme, but for a failure to comply with the requirements under the Scheme, in any future payment of monies under the Scheme.

Forfeiture of distribution

15.5. An Eligible Group Member may notify the Scheme Administrator in writing that they wish to forfeit their Distribution Amount or Residual Distribution Amount. Any Distribution Amount or Residual Distribution Amount forfeited by an Eligible Group Member will form part of the Distribution Sum or Residual Settlement Sum to be distributed in accordance with clauses 9 to 11.

15.6. An Eligible Group Member's decision to forfeit their Distribution Amount or Residual Distribution Amount is final and the Eligible Group Member will not be entitled to recover any amount they might have received pursuant to the Scheme, but for their decision to forfeit, in any future payment of monies under the Scheme.

Eligible Group Members indemnify the Scheme Administrator

15.7. If an Eligible Group Member has a legal obligation by reason of receiving a Distribution Amount or Residual Distribution Amount pursuant to the Scheme, whether under statute or contract or otherwise to any government department, agency, or authority to pay or repay a sum from their Distribution Amount or Residual Distribution Amount and they do not notify the Scheme Administrator of such obligation prior to payment of the Distribution Amount or Residual Distribution Amount pursuant to the Scheme, the Eligible Group Member indemnifies and holds harmless the Scheme Administrator from and against any claim associated with that legal obligation.
