SETTLEMENT NOTICE

English Summary

This letter is to tell you that the last date to register has been changed to 31 July 2022. If you have already registered you do not need to register again.

The Federal Court of Australia told Maurice Blackburn Lawyers to share this story. This story is about young people that stayed in an NT Government Youth Detention Centre.

Maurice Blackburn Lawyers are people that work with non-Indigenous law. These lawyers speak for two people on a court case against the Northern Territory Government. In this court case, two people, Dylan Jenkins and Aaron Hyde, said that the NT Government broke the law and gave pain to young people in youth detention. But, the NT government do not think they broke the law.

Aaron and Dylan asked the NT Government to pay compensation money to young people who were in youth detention between 1 August 2006 and 27 November 2017. If you were in Youth detention at this time, the NT Government will pay compensation money to you.

If you want to get that compensation money from the government, you must 'register'. This means you must tell the lawyers that you want this compensation money. You can register by calling the lawyers. You can also register by going to the lawyers' website and putting in your information: classaction.mauriceblackburn.com.au/NTYouthJusticeSettlement/registration/contactdetails.

Call the lawyers for free. Use this number – 1800 226 211.

You must register before 31 July 2022. If you do not register with the lawyers, you will not get any of the compensation money.

This is what you can do to find out more information about this story. You might call the lawyers and talk with them. The lawyers can arrange an interpreter when they talk with you. You might listen to the audio recording in Yolngu Matha, Kriol, Warlpiri, and Pitjantjatjara. These recordings are on the lawyers' website: www.mauriceblackburn.com.au/class-actions/settlement-administration/nt-youth-justice-class-action/.

These lawyers are not trying to trick you. You can look at the Federal Court website: www.comcourts.gov.au/file/Federal/P/NTD64/2016/actions to see that this is a true story.

This letter is to tell you that the last date to register has been changed to 31 July 2022.

If you have already registered you do not need to register again.
